Introduction

Congratulations on your decision on choosing Practice Makes Perfect: Basic English for your first year of English language learning.

There is really only one way to learn a new language, and that is to build your vocabulary, learn the verb tenses and the mechanics of that language, and then practice, practice, practice. This workbook was designed to help you do just that.

This workbook will help you to proficiently learn and effectively master the strategies and methods needed to provide you with a solid foundation in English. All the lessons are presented in a simple and progressive format designed to help you retain the knowledge and gain confidence by applying and reinforcing the skills acquired throughout the workbook.

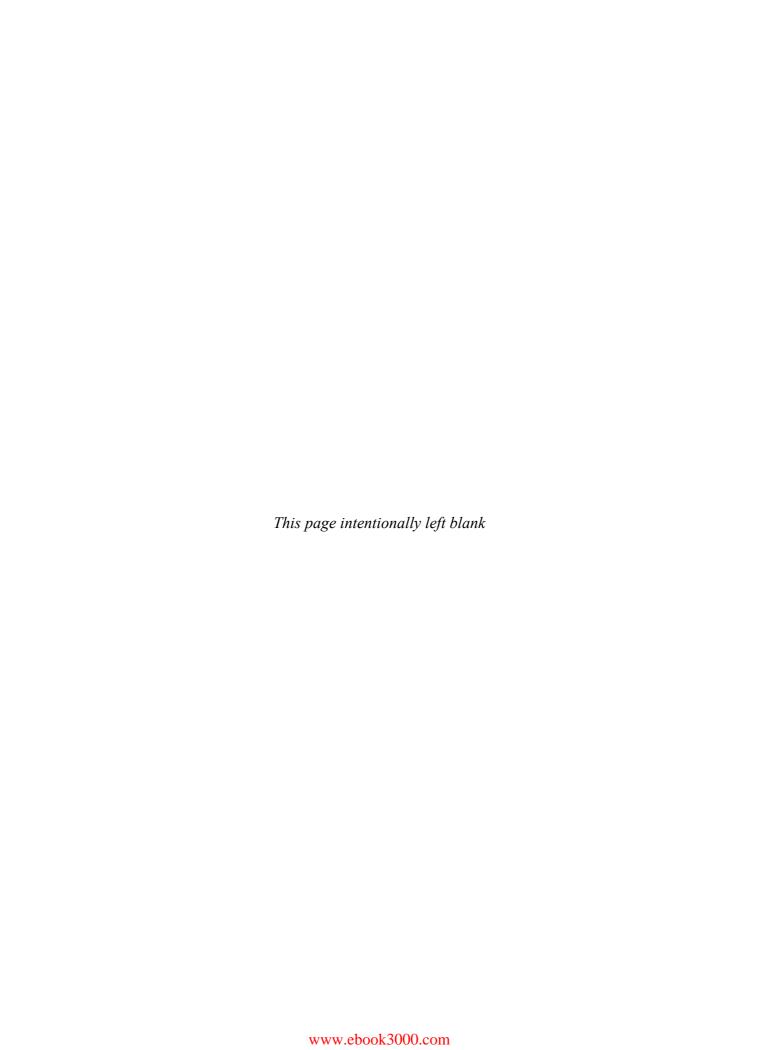

You will learn the mechanics of English through user-friendly, interactive, and well-constructed grammar exercises. These exercises are loaded with everyday basic words intended to help you quickly and efficiently enrich your vocabulary and give you a firm understanding of the lesson before moving on to the next.

Ample space is provided in each lesson for you to record your new vocabulary words in a central location to allow you to study these words regularly and refer back to them quickly when necessary. Be sure to learn these words by heart as they are basic and useful English words.

Learning a new language is an interesting and exciting journey that is enhanced when the learning material is presented in a stimulating and enjoyable manner that encourages a learner to keep moving forward.

We wish you much success and enjoyment throughout your learning process using this workbook, and we are confident that you will gain from it exactly what was intended: a solid comprehension of your first year of English language learning.

Good luck, and above all, have fun.

The Present Perfect Tense

The present perfect tense is used when the time of a past activity is not important or is not known in the sentence. Use has or have and the past participle of the verb with both regular and irregular verbs to form the present perfect tense.

Contractions can also be used with the pronouns to create the present perfect tense.

Regular
SIMPLE PRESENT	SIMPLE PAST	PRESENT PERFECT	CONTRACTION
I work you work he works she works it works we work they work	I worked you worked he worked she worked it worked we worked they worked	I have worked you have worked he has worked she has worked it has worked we have worked they have worked	I've worked you've worked he's worked she's worked it's worked we've worked they've worked
Irregular
SIMPLE PRESENT	SIMPLE PAST	PRESENT PERFECT	CONTRACTION
I take you take he takes she takes it takes we take they take	I took you took he took she took it took we took they took	I have taken you have taken he has taken she has taken it has taken we have taken they have taken	I've taken you've taken he's taken she's taken it's taken we've taken they've taken

The past participle of all regular verbs is the same as the simple past tense form (add -ed).

INFINITIVE	SIMPLE PAST	PAST PARTICIPLE
to borrow	borrowed	borrowed
to cheat	cheated	cheated
to try	tried	tried
to offend	offended	offended
to work	worked	worked

The past participle of all irregular verbs has a different form and must be studied and learned. Refer to Lesson 44.

INFINITIVE	SIMPLE PAST	PAST PARTICIPLE
to grow	grew	grown
to teach	taught	taught
to be	was/were	been
to hear	heard	heard
to take	took	taken

It takes a lot of practice to be able to correctly use the present perfect tense. Learn the past participles of all the irregular verbs by heart, and you will quickly be able to use this tense proficiently.

Rewrite the following sentences to create the present perfect tense using has or have and the past participle of the verb in parentheses. Use the two preceding verb lists to complete this exercise. You have already learned these verbs in previous exercises.

- 1. They (to work) in Japan.
- 2. William (to grow) a lot since the last time I saw him.
- 3. My parents (to be) together for twenty years.
- 4. They (to borrow) a lot of money from their friends.
- 5. She (to teach) English in many different schools.
- 6. You (to offend) everybody in the office.
- 7. I (to hear) that noise in my car several times.
- 8. He (to cheat) on every one of his tests.
- 9. We (to try) to help them.
- 10. It (to take) a long time.

Complete the sentences that follow to create the present perfect tense. Use the contracted pronoun and the past participle of the verb in parentheses. You have already learned these verbs in previous exercises.
